

Computing resource list

Below are some useful links to help your child improve their computing skills they develop as part of our computing curriculum.

Typing Club is a website which can be used to help your child improve their overall typing ability.

<https://www.typingclub.com/>

Dance Mat Typing is a series of interactive videos that can aid your child in the basics of touch typing.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zf2f9j6/articles/z3c6tfr>

Keyboard Climber 2 is a game that will help your child with their accuracy in using a keyboard.

<https://www.tvokids.com/school-age/games/keyboard-climber-2>

Chrome Music Lab is a set of different programmes which we use in our coding sessions to create their own pieces of music. See the video linked below for an explanation of the Song Maker Program.

<https://musiclab.chromeexperiments.com/>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BqncqSxIwgc>

Isle is Tune is a fun game that allows children that allows children to create complex pieces of music while making use of their coding skills.

<https://isleoftune.com/>

ScratchTeam is a Youtube channel run by creators of scratch which contains a number of tutorials to help your child to become a better coder.

<https://www.youtube.com/c/ScratchTeam>